Dear All,

Looks like we've had our first serious threat of physical violence. It has come from a participant in [REDACTED] deliberative democracy project last weekend. One of the participants left early after he too exception to my talk about climate science. [REDACTED] exact words were:

"Moreover, before he left, he came to the Fri dinner and showed other participants his gun licence and explained to them how good a sniper he is. Because he didn't attend day 2 he will not be allowed to attend the final day. I will be notifying security to be on hand in case he turns up and causes a problem."

I think the final day is this weekend but I am not sure. Anyway, I've asked [REDACTED] to brief the VC and the head of security ASAP. The latter will determine whether this should go to the AFP or not.

But in the meantime, we should be careful about anyone we don't know who approaches our offices.
